

Turn to page sixteen in, “A Magnificent Field Trip to the Governor’s Mansion” and enjoy the following activities with your preschoolers!

Activity	Directions
 Flower Breathing	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Hold an imaginary flower: Ask the children to pretend they're holding an imaginary flower in one hand. 2. Smell the flower: Have them take a slow, deep breath in through their nose, like they're smelling the flower. 3. Blow the petals: Then, gently breathe out through their mouth, as if they're blowing the petals to make them move. 4. Repeat: Continue to repeat this two more times.
Fruit Tree Pose	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Stand tall like a tree trunk: Have children stand with feet together or sit tall in a chair. 2. Lift one foot: Balance one foot on the other leg or keep toes on the floor for support. 3. Grow branches: Stretch arms up like tree branches reaching for the sky. 4. Grow fruit: Pretend to grow apples or oranges on their branches by opening and closing hands. 5. Sway gently: Sway like a tree in the wind. For extra support, children can hold onto a chair or wall, and seated children can participate too! Remind them all trees grow differently.
 Adventure on the Nature Trail	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Ready, set, go!: Stand or sit tall like you're about to explore. 2. March along: March in place or move your arms like you're walking. 3. Animal spotting: Point out animals like birds or butterflies you “see” on the trail. 4. Smell the flowers: Take a deep breath, pretending to smell the flowers. 5. Hop over a puddle: Pretend to jump over a puddle, or lift your arms as if hopping.
Buzzing Beehive	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Stand tall: Gather in a group. 2. Buzz along: Move in place, buzzing like busy bees. 3. Visit flowers: Pretend to fly over colorful flowers, looking up and reaching them with your hands. 4. Collect pollen: Gently touch your own shoulders, pretending to collect pollen. 5. Fly to the hive: Move in a circle, then quietly and calmly “fly” back to your seat.
Fruit and Veggie Sorting	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Materials: Provide a variety of toys or pictures of fruits and vegetables. 2. Sorting: Have children sort them by color or type.
