Looking for ways to celebrate Pre-K Week? Listed below are activities influenced by this year’s official Pre-K Week book, Llama Llama Red Pajama by Anna Dewdney. Share your activities on social media using #GaPreKWeek.

Rhyming & Word Play

Introduce new words by creating and matching rhyming words from this children's classic. Click here.

Understanding Emotions

Have students identify the different emotions experienced by Llama Llama and role play. Click here.

Colorful Pajama Party

Who doesn’t love a pajama party? Have your students wear their favorite pajamas to school and try this fun pajama craft that teaches color words. Click here.

Alphabet Quilt

“L is for Llama!” Help children create a colorful quilt as they match letters and sounds to pictures. Click here.

Bedtime Routines

Create a fun bedtime routine book and discuss how important sleeping is to being healthy and growing strong. Click here.

From The Author

Visit this page for fun lessons, crafts, activities and games created by the author, Anna Dewdney. http://llamallamabook.com/activities